

Rochester, NY, April 19, 2011 - Commitment to excellence over the past year has earned Sutherland Global Services recognition as a 2011 AT&T Supplier Award winner for its support of affiliates of AT&T, one of the world's leading data, voice, wireless and Internet services providers.

"We are proud of our long-standing tradition of providing unparalleled, innovative products and services to our business and residential customers," said Tim Harden, president of AT&T Supply Chain and Fleet Operations. "We're successful on that front in large part thanks to extraordinary suppliers like Sutherland Global Services that consistently go above and beyond, exceeding our expectations and helping exceed those of our customers as well."

Sutherland Global Services was recognized for its contributions across a broad scope of criteria including

- cost management solutions
- teamwork
- customer service
- product and service performance
- diversity results and
- sustainability

As part of its annual Supplier Award Program, AT&T took out a half-page ad shown below in the April 19 edition of The Wall Street Journal to publicly thank the selected companies.

Working as one, we're expanding what's possible.

Congratulations to our supplier award winners for their teamwork, dedication and creativity.
Together we accomplish great things.
